

Apply now for Solar Spring Break!

MITEI is now accepting applications for our 2018 Solar Spring Break program, details below:

- we send a team of 12 students to Los Angeles, 2 of them as team leaders
 - run by GRID Alternatives, a national non-profit that installs solar panels in low-income and tribal communities (here's GRID's SSB page)
 - includes safety/solar orientation, solar policy discussions, 2 days of on-site solar installation, a solar design workshop, training (here's our trip packet)
 - cost per student is $500 total, which includes a $50 deposit
 - cost covers airfare, accommodations, and most meals for the week
-

- financial aid is available for eligible students and fundraising tools are available to all
- non-GRID activities: Griffith Observatory, Santa Monica Pier, Grand Central Market, LA Arts District
- you can find the application here

Email askmitei-ed@mit.edu with any questions or comments you might have!

--The MITEI Education Office

Copyright © 2017 MITEI, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you indicated that you were interested in receiving information from the MIT Energy Initiative on upcoming energy studies events and activities, the Energy Studies Minor or Energy UROP, and any Energy graduate-level opportunities.

Our mailing address is:

MITEI
77 Mass. Ave
Building E19-307
Cambridge, MA 02139

Add us to your address book